

Music Changes Lives

How music empowers
young people and builds a brighter future.

Tracy Burjan is the Founder and Artistic Director of Symphonia Jubilate, a leading Sydney-based organisation transforming young lives through choral and orchestral music.

With a deep passion for music education, Tracy has built award-winning choirs and orchestras that inspire confidence, teamwork and a lifelong love of music in young people across our community.

Join us to hear Tracy's inspiring story, the impact of Symphonia Jubilate, and how music can create real and lasting change.
