

Bulletin 2003/4

CLUB PRESIDENT
Keith Stockall

[illegible]

*O Lord and Giver of all good
We thank You for our daily food
May Rotary friends and Rotary ways
Help us to serve You all our days*

A reminder that club elections will be held on 3 December 2003 to elect the Board for the 2004/2005 year. I would encourage all club members to consider nominations for positions on the Board and other positions of office. Remember it's your club, you get out of it what you put into it.

Keep the 6th of December available in your diary for Christmas carols in Strathfield Park.

Have a good week

? Keith

YOUTH SERVICE

Kevin Beltrame advises that the Board has agreed to nominate three people for the R.Y.L.A. week in January 2004.

Kate Vandy and Louise Colley are completing the HSC with Meridan this year and Emma Lindsay was one of the recipients of our Youth Achievement Awards in April 2003.

All three women are Strathfield residents.

Members' Announcements

Connie Lanzafame and Paul Giammarco also donated prizes at the Pride of Workmanship Awards evening.

We all wish Warren Abbott well after his spell in hospital. We've been missing your wry good humour and polite witty comments, Warren!

The "Lion King" bookings have closed now.

George Helou received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Oncology Unit where he has helped so much. On ya, George!

Celebrations!

John Watkins (29th)
Bert Houston (2nd Nov.)
Sharon Saad (2nd Nov.)

Fines Session Highlights

Tony based his fines session on the theme of "Protective Services". Then, in Cross-Fines, Sal Tosto fined Ray McCluskie for giving away his dessert; Janelle fined Raymond also for 'just being in Listmore when she was'; Steve Taylor fined President Keith with the question "Who will get a new bike sooner – Keith or his wife?". Keith cross-fined with "Lillian was quite happy with her bike till Steve started criticizing it."
